

~~ TRAINING SEMINAR ~~

Insurance 101 Understanding Your Liability in the Emergency Services

This seminar will assist in identifying situations during emergency responses which could cause potential liability concerns for both the organization and its officers, provide assistance to help reduce and eliminate those concerns and provide insight on how the organization's insurance policy should be written to provide adequate insurance coverage.

This class will focus on 6 key areas Chiefs, Line Officers and future Line Officers need to be concerned and familiar with.

- Emergency Operations

- Emergency Responses

- Immunity from Liability

- Insurance Coverage
- Negligent

- Entrustment

- Preventing & Reducing Risk

Hosted By:

East Greenville Fire Dept.
Washington St.
East Greenville, PA

Registration
&
Information:

Contact: Tony Blackwell

Phone: 800-882-0801

Email: tony@generalinsuranceinc.com

Website: www.insuranceforvolunteers.com

FREE !!!

Sunday
March 11, 2012
9:00 AM

*This seminar is recognized as a Loss Control Program through the Emergency Services Insurance Program — ESIP.
Pre-registration for all seminars is strongly recommended.*

ESIP
Offered by McNeil & Company